BUB'S AT THE BEACH

In 1998, a restaurant opportunity became available in Pacific Beach at this very spot. A young man (at least compared to now) set out to follow his dream to create the best and most successful bar and grill Pacific Beach had to offer. Instead, he created BUB'S. Almost 20 years later, we are proud to have multiple locations throughout San Diego, and partnerships and friendships we have made along the way. Take the Tater Tot, for instance. We have been serving them since the first month we opened in 1998, when the delivery driver dropped off the wrong box. Do we give him credit? Of course not! That's silly. In fact, if you have any more good ideas please let us know...

As the official Pittsburgh Steelers bar in San Diego and home to the Virginia Tech Hokies, sports are a big part of our fun. Just like sunshine, sand and waves!

Pacific Beach is where BUB'S was born and where we will always consider home! Good, fresh, cooked-to-order food is what we've been about since day one. Cold beer and fun doesn't hurt either! Well there it is, BUB'S: another man's stupid idea of fun!

Todd Brown

Born and raised in Wheeling, West Virginia, Todd Brown packed up his Winnebago and made his way out to San Diego in 1991 with his best friend, Pickle, and has since made America's Finest City his permanent home. After earning his degree in Economics, along with minors in Business Mathematics and Psychology, Brown has found that his true passion lies in San Diego's restaurant industry, where his business-savvy mindset has manifested itself in Brown's ownership of three restaurants, including Bub's @ the Beach, Bub's @ the Ballpark, and The Blind Burro, and co-ownership of Waterbar in Pacific Beach. Between his clear aptitude for the industry and his inherent ability enliven his branding with self-deprecating, tongue-in-cheek humor, Brown leads with authenticity and attention-to-detail, both no doubt major players in his vast success.
